NCERT Solutions for Class 6 English Chapter 4 The Old-Clock Shop

Questions

Question 1: What made Ray think the visitor was not really a shopper?

Answer:

Ray, with his old and clever eyes, could tell that the person who came late wasn't there to buy something. The visitor didn't have a friendly look in their eyes.

Question 2. Why do you think he had come to the shop?

Answer:

I believe he came to the store to steal. He really needed money badly.

Question 3. How did Ray communicate with him?

Answer:

Ray couldn't hear well, so he talked to the visitor by writing on a notepad using a pen.

Question 4. What do you think the man said to his friend who waited at the door?

Answer:

The man probably informed his friend, who was waiting at the door, that the shop owner couldn't hear well.

Question 5. Ray was not a pawnbroker. Why, then, did he lend money to people in exchange for their old watches and clocks?

Answer:

Ray was a really nice guy. He wasn't a pawnbroker, someone who lends money using stuff as security. But he always helped people when they needed it. That's why he would give money to people in return for their old watches and clocks.

Question 6. "The watch was nothing special and yet had great powers." In what sense did it have 'great powers'?

Answer:

It was powerful because it protected Ray from getting hurt by the visitors who came late. Also, it stopped the visitors from robbing the shop. They needed money, and they got it by leaving their watch as a promise.

Question 7. Do you think the man would ever come back to pick up the watch?

Answer:

No, I don't believe the older man will return to get his watch. He got more money than the watch was actually worth.

Question 8. When did “the unfriendly face” of the visitor turn truly friendly?

Answer:

The visitor, who wasn't friendly at first, became really happy when he got a fifty-dollar bill for his regular watch. Ray and the older man both knew the watch wasn't worth that much money. So, the older man truly appreciated Ray's kindness.
