Exercise Questions

Question 1:

How did the two baby birds get separated?

Answer:

Two little birds lived with their mom in a nest high up in a tall and shady tree. One day, a big storm with thunder, lightning, and rain came. A large, heavy branch struck the nest and sadly, their mom bird didn't survive. The strong wind carried the two baby birds to the opposite side of the forest, separating them from each other.

Question 2:

Where did each of them find a home?

Answer:

One baby bird ended up close to a cave where a group of robbers stayed. The other baby bird landed near a sage's peaceful dwelling a bit farther away. So, they each found a different place to call home.

Question 3:

What did the first bird say to the stranger?

Answer:

The initial bird spotted a stranger, who was the King. It alerted the robbers to hurry and steal the King's jewelry and horse. The bird indirectly cautioned the stranger about the dangers of being near the cave.

Question 4:

What did the second bird say to him?

Answer:

The other bird greeted the King at the hermitage. It invited the stranger to enter the hermitage, relax, and feel at home. It also explained that the first bird was its sibling, who had befriended robbers, which is why it talked like them.

Question 5:

How did the rishi explain the different ways in which the birds behaved?

Answer:

The king was amazed at how differently the two birds acted. The sage clarified that the first bird copied the words it heard from the robbers, while the second bird echoed the words it was accustomed to at the hermitage. This shows that the birds' behaviors were influenced by the kind of people they lived with.

Question 6:

Which one of the following sums up the story best?

- (i) A bird in hand is worth two in the bush.
- (ii) One is known by the company one keeps.
- (iii) A friend in need is a friend indeed.

Answer:

- (ii) One is known by the company one keeps.
